

6-7 MARCH 2010
Alexandra Palace
London

More than just a show

Plans for the 2010 Dinghy Show are well underway. The show is taking place at Alexandra Palace on the Saturday 6th and Sunday 7th March. Read on for all the highlights!

As ever we will need as much help as possible to set up the stand on Friday 5th March and take it down again on the Sunday evening.

We also need lots of volunteers to man the stand over the two days. If you are able to help at all please get in touch with us by either emailing christian.day@hotmail.co.uk or phoning 07984 4040349.

Many thanks,

Chris and Sophie

What's going on at the National 12 stand this year?

- Brand new foiling dead cat bounce on the stand - Burton Week winning design!
- Sailors from the top of the fleet ready to share secrets of their success
- New video footage from the 2009 sailing season
- Balloons galore as we join the treasure hunt once again
- Internet access to showcase our website and boat database

Where are we?

Our stand is located in the central part of the Great Hall, between Holt and Speed Sails.

What's going on elsewhere?

- Volvo main stage featuring the likes of Paul Larsen and Richard Stenhouse
- RYA Coaching zone, talks from the likes of Steve Cockerill and Grahame Forshaw
- Fitness Zone - challenge some Olympic sailors!
- Stands from chandlery and clothing suppliers - perfect for preparing for the new sailing season
